Communiqué

Temporary closure of the Central Flacq branch

SBI (Mauritius) Ltd informs the public that its branch in Central Flacq will be temporarily closed for disinfection, following a staff member tested positive for COVID-19.

The bank has already deployed the sanitary protocol in place to protect its staff and customers, and is fully collaborating with the health authorities on the procedure to follow. SBI (Mauritius) Ltd reassures its customers about the continuity of its services. Operations at the said branch will resume once the disinfection exercise is completed. While waiting for the reopening in Flacq, customers are requested to go to the nearest branch, either Montagne Blanche or Rose Belle.

SBI (Mauritius) Ltd apologizes for any inconvenience and relies on the understanding of its kind customers.
