Communiqué

Temporary closure of Quatre Bornes branch

SBI (Mauritius) Ltd informs the public that its branch in Quatre Bornes will be temporarily closed for disinfection, following few staff members tested positive for COVID-19.

The bank has already deployed the sanitary protocol in place to protect its staff and customers and is fully collaborating with the concerned authorities on the procedure to follow. SBI (Mauritius) Ltd reassures its customers about the continuity of its services. Operations at the said branch will resume once the disinfection exercise is completed. While waiting for the reopening in Quatre Bornes, customers are requested to go to our Ebene branch or our YONO Digital outlet in Trianon.

SBI (Mauritius) Ltd apologizes for any inconvenience and relies on the understanding of its kind customers. To minimise health risks, we are encouraging you to:

- Avoid visiting the branches if your transaction can be delayed further.
- Take advantage of the tools and resources for self-service banking and 24/7 account access through our mobile app YONO and our online banking platform.
