1. Introduction

The Bank of Mauritius (BOM) issued guidelines on Related Party Transactions (RPT) in December 2001 which were last revised in June 2015. The revised guidelines, inter-alia, require the Board of Directors of a financial institution to establish a policy on RPT.

SBIML formulated its RPT policy referring to the above guidelines read in conjunction with the Banking Act 2004, Companies Act 2001 and the BOM Guidelines on Scope of Application of Basel III and Eligible Capital issued in June 2014.

SBIML's RPT policy enunciates the basic framework of risk management to be put in place across the bank with regard to related party transactions and the objective of the policy is also to regulate transactions between the Bank and its related parties, with particular emphasis on regulatory limits.

2. Related Party

The BOM Guidelines provide that “Related Party in relation to a financial institution has the same meaning as in the Banking Act 2004”.

As per Banking Act 2004, “Related Party in relation to a financial institution means-

- (a) a person who has significant interest in the financial institution or the financial institution has significant interest in the person;*
- (b) a director or senior officer of the financial institution or of a body corporate that controls the financial institution;*
- (c) the spouse, a child, the parent or ascendant or descendant of a natural person covered in paragraphs (a) and (b);*
- (d) an entity that is controlled by a person described in paragraphs (a) to (c); or*
- (e) a person or class of persons who has been designated by the central bank as a related party because of its past or present interest in or relationship with the financial institution being such that it might be reasonably expected to affect the exercise of best judgment of the financial institution in respect of a transaction;*

3. Rules governing Related Party Transactions

As per BOM guidelines, “related party transactions include the following:

- a. Credit, financial leasing, non-fund based commitments such as documentary credits, guarantees on behalf of a related party, acquiring a loan made by a third party to a related party;*
- b. Placements made by the financial institution with the related party;*
- c. Conditional sales agreements;*
- d. Consulting or professional service contracts with directors;*

- e. Investment in equity of a related party;
- f. Deposits placed with the financial institution by the related parties; and
- g. Acquisition, sale or lease of assets.”

The guidelines further provide that “all transactions with related parties must be carried out on terms and conditions that are at least as favourable to the financial institution as market terms and conditions.”

4. Classification of Related Party Exposures

Related parties, whether body corporates or natural persons, fall into two main groups:

- (a) Those that are related to SBIML because of ownership interest; and
- (b) Those that are related otherwise, such as directors and senior officers who may also have some ownership interest in the financial institution

The related party exposures are further classified into 3 main categories as detailed below:

Category 1:

This includes credit exposures to:

- (a) A person who has significant interest in SBIML;
- (b) A director of SBIML;
- (c) A director of a body corporate that controls SBIML;
- (d) The spouse, child and parent of a natural person covered in (a) or (b) or (c) above;
- (e) Any entity that is controlled by a person described in (a) or (b) or (c) or (d) above;
- (f) Any entity in which SBIML has significant interest, excluding a subsidiary of SBIML as mentioned in (e) above.

Category 2:

This includes credit exposures to:

- a) Senior Officers, which are outside the terms and conditions of employment contracts;
- b) The spouse, child and parent of senior officers;
- c) Senior officers of a body corporate that controls the financial institution;
- d) Any entity that is controlled by a person described in a) or b) or c) above; and
- e) A subsidiary of SBIML with no shareholder (natural person) holding directly or indirectly more than a significant shareholding in the parent financial institution.

Category 3:

This includes credit exposures to senior officers, which are within the terms and conditions of employment contracts.

The related parties of SBIML are provided in Appendix 1.

5. Board and Senior Management Responsibilities

The Board of Directors shall ensure that SBIML has a robust system of checks and balances to monitor compliance with the regulatory limits uphold impartiality and prevent credit activities of any kind which override established credit approval policies and procedures when granting credit facilities to related parties. The Board of Directors has delegated Conduct Review and Risk Management Committee (CRRMC) to review and ratify related party transactions on a quarterly basis, as per pre-approved limits for RPT under Delegation of Financial Powers.

The Conduct Review and Risk Management Committee (CRRMC) shall be mandated to:

- i. Direct the management of the bank to refine and modify policies and procedures relating to approval / review and monitoring of related party transactions.
- ii. Review and ratify related party transactions in the usual manner.
- iii. Ensure that market terms and conditions (It would mean that in respect of a loan or other credit facilities, the terms and conditions are no more favourable than those offered to the public by the financial institution in the ordinary course of business and in respect of other transactions, the terms and conditions including price, rent or interest rate that might be reasonably expected to apply to similar transactions in an open market where parties deal at arm's length, acting knowledgeably and willingly) are applied to all RPT.
- iv. Review the practices of the Bank to ensure that RPT that may have material effect on the stability and solvency of the financial institution is identified and dealt with in a timely manner.
- v. Report periodically (quarterly at least) on matter reviewed, including exceptions to policies, processes and limits to the Board.

6. Regulatory Limits

Having categorized the related parties into 3 categories as above, the BOM Guideline provide that “credit exposure to any single borrower / group of closely related customers who are related parties to the financial institution shall be governed by the Guideline on Credit Concentration Risk, subject to the following conditions :

- a) The aggregate of credit exposures to and investments in equity shares of all related parties in Category 1, other than investments in subsidiaries and associates, should not exceed 60% of the financial institution's Tier 1 capital

b) The aggregate of credit exposures to and investments in equity shares of all related parties in Category 1 and 2, other than investments in subsidiaries and associates, should not exceed 150% of the financial institution's Tier 1 Capital."

7. BOM Discretion

BOM may consider requests for exceeding the regulatory limits on the express condition that the additional credit exposure to related parties shall be deducted from the financial institution's Tier 1 Capital, along with other conditions that BOM may choose to impose.

8. Exemptions from regulatory limits

SBIML shall be exempted from the regulatory limits on the following credit exposures:

- (a) A credit exposure to the extent to which it is collateralized by deposits with the financial institution or Government of Mauritius securities or a loan to the extent to which it is guaranteed by the Government of Mauritius;
- (b) A credit exposure to the extent to which it is collateralized by securities issued by another government or a loan to the extent to which it is guaranteed by another government provided that the exposure is
 - (i) Denominated and funded in its national currency, and
 - (ii) Approved by BOM under paragraph 4 of the Guideline on Standardized Approach to Credit Risk revised in February 2018 for a zero per cent risk weight (as per Appendix 2)
- (c) A credit exposure to parastatal bodies and to an entity in which Government has more than 50 per cent shareholding;
- (d) Inter-bank transactions as part of treasury operations;
- (e) Credit exposures, including aggregate credit exposures to a group of closely related customers as defined in the Guideline on Credit Concentration Risk revised in December 2017, representing less than 2 per cent of the financial institution's Tier 1 capital, and
- (f) Category 3 type of related party exposures.

9. Internal Policy Guidelines on RPT

- a) While the prudential exposure norms, rules and limits have been approved by the Board as part of the Loan Policy Document of the bank, the bank will ensure that same norms, rules and limits apply to all RPT including those representing less than 2% of the Tier 1 capital.

- b) A director having a conflict of interest in respect of RPT in an agenda before the Board shall so declare and exclude himself from the approval process of such RPT.
- c) The Bank shall ensure that it stays within the regulatory limits and will apply market related terms while granting credit exposures to a related party. In this regard the following procedure shall be followed:
 - i. Respective Vice Presidents shall ensure that the above procedure is followed in respect of all transactions involving direct or indirect credit risk exposure including, Buyers' Credit granted on the Letter of Comfort or any such instrument undertaking repayment thereof and guarantees, in whichever form, issued on the counter guarantee of parent bank. The same shall apply to placements with parent bank, its associates and subsidiaries.
 - ii. Risk department shall apprise Senior Management on any breaches in RPT limits in the Monthly RCOM meeting.
 - iii. Internal Audit department shall conduct regular reviews to check that established policies, limits and procedures in relation to RPT are adhered to.
- d) A note on Related Party transactions shall be put up by Global Business unit to the Conduct Review & Risk Management Committee of the Board. The minutes of the proceedings of Conduct Review and Risk Management Committee Meetings shall be put up to the Board.
- e) Any exception to the regulatory limit shall be referred to BOM for prior approval.
- f) No write-off of related party credit exposure shall take place without the prior approval of the Board of Directors.

10. Reporting Requirements

BOM requires a financial institution to report on a quarterly basis all information relating to credit exposures to related parties including exemptions from regulatory limits on credit limits in prescribed formats. Respective Business Units where RPT are domiciled will be responsible for conveying the information to Global Business unit for consolidation and reporting to BOM. Global Business department shall also seek a confirmation on any change in Senior Officers / Directors from Company Secretary for preparation of RPT return, which shall be submitted to Risk department for final vetting prior to submission to BOM.

11. Disclosure Requirements

The Bank shall disclose its related party transactions in accordance with the requirements of the Guideline on Public Disclosure of Information.

12. Review of the Policy

This Policy document will be comprehensively reviewed every year. However, mid-term review maybe undertaken by Risk Department, to facilitate changes in existing policy consistent with any regulatory changes.
